Roger, Futuraula's Coordinator

10 years after my first stay in Vedanthangal and thanks to Indian Futures, I found the opportunity to continue the work done in Vedanthangal back in 2008. By creating Futuraula I have managed to find a way to support quality education in South India from my teaching position in Barcelona, thanks to the willingness of the students who, year after year, sharpen their skills and find creative ways to fundraise for the projects that IF runs so diligently.

This forthcoming academic year 2021-2022 Futuraula is aiming to sponsor the university fees of several young women from Vedanthangal and surrounding areas as we did last year.

We hope to do even better!

News from India

The return to school!!

Finally! After nearly a year and a half with very little to no access to education, Indian secondary (14 to 17 year olds) and further education students have returned to school today, 1st September.

Our Indian partner, Laia Foundation, has been teaching students throughout the pandemic using phone apps and worksheets. We're working harder than ever to support their efforts!
