

UK News

Memories of an Indian Future

Indian Futures is coming to Brighton Fringe Festival!

We have partnered with The Bhopal Medical Appeal in holding a photography exhibition.

The Bhopal Medical Appeal are a Brighton based charity, helping to provide free medical care, education and community support to those suffering from the effects of the 1996 gas disaster in Bhopal, India.

Come to see 'Memories of an Indian Future' at Phoenix Art Space between 31st May and 4th June.

PHOENIX
ART SPACE

Isabeau de Rouffignac, a French artist and photographer, will be displaying photographs from her 'Saris for Memory' collection, featuring women survivors of the Bhopal gas disaster wearing saris printed with newspaper cuttings.

Pep Àvila, a Catalan photographer, will be exhibiting photographs from the people he encountered during his visit to Vedanthangal.

Please see the link in the email signature for further details - we would love to see you there!

Spain News

Sant Jordi

The students at Futuraula had lots of fun selling edible rose sweets and fresh roses to raise money for Indian Futures as part of Sant Jordi Festival in Barcelona. Their excellent efforts raised a total of 955€.

Amazing work and thank you!

India News

Our 14 sponsored students in India have all successfully completed the Personal Development course. There will be 7 students graduating this year thanks to the the Sponsorship Programme. They will continue to work with IT company Accenture to discuss their hopes for next year, career advice and how to gain employment. 3 of the students have already secured jobs as nurses!

